8.5 Community Enforcement

Our partnership with Community Enforcement began in January and we now have set procedures for dealing with isolated and ongoing issues.

Issues that can be dealt with are:

- Abandoned vehicles (more than 4 weeks unless they are in a state of disrepair)
- Dog fouling
- Fly tipping
- Business Waste
- Litter

Since starting in January, the Community Enforcement Officer has dealt with the below number of incidents up until 23rd March 2023:

Abandoned vehicles: 51

Fly tipping: 18

Dog fouling: 11

Dog fouling sign request: 4

Littering: 1

There are currently 3 active patrol plans for Christchurch, Tytherington and the centotaph. Plans are also being set up for Windmill Park and Macclesfield South (the high street area).
